

It has been brought to my attention that the FCC is thinking of overturning the New Jersey Do Not Call telemarketer law just because it is more stringent than the federal law. Please honor state's rights in allowing them to decide this type of issue for their citizenry. I use to routinely have numerous telemarketer calls every day. With the New Jersey law, they have thankfully disappeared. Help protect US citizens and state's rights and do not overturn this law.